

15. Division of External Affairs

The Division of External Affairs, as a core organization responsible for public relations and outreach activities, promotes “dialogue” with society, including the local area, through a variety of activities. The organization underwent a review in 2019 and now consists of five offices: the Society Cooperation Office, the Content Production Office, the Event Planning Office, the Public Relations and Tour Guide Office, and the Outreach Promotion Office. A summary of the offices is depicted in Fig. 1. Many NIFS staff are active as members of the department. Its main activities are : holding academic lectures for the public (Fig. 2), providing tours of NIFS facilities (Fig. 3), and science classroom activities (Fig. 4). Face-to-face activities have been limited due to COVID-19, but new activities online have been initiated.
